

HOTEL INFORMATION

Set in 20 acres of mature parkland in the secluded conservation village of Orton Longueville, the hotel, formerly the estate of the Marquesses of Huntly, has been tastefully restored to much of its former glory as one of Cambridgeshire's foremost country houses. There are a variety of room types available, all 70 of which are en-suite and offer spacious, comfortable facilities. The hotel offers a choice of dining, in either the award winning Huntly Restaurant or the Ramblewood Inn.

Conferences and meetings

Our conference facilities include the purpose built Orton Suite, which offers excellent levels of comfort and flexibility, located on the ground floor with full disabled access. There is the option to divide it into four smaller rooms making them an ideal choice for all of your business requirements. The rooms are fully air conditioned with natural daylight and blackout facilities. The Great Room is part of the original house with splendid baronial features. It is an excellent venue for truly memorable events.
